Cori A. Rosen joined Rosenberg & Estis in 2013 and is a Member with the firm's Litigation Department. Rosen's practice includes counseling clients regarding compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Fair Housing Act, State Human Rights Law, and New York City Human Rights Law by: defending administrative and civil proceedings; providing guidance on accessible design and construction; developing and administering training programs; and preparing client procedures and policies to ensure compliance through nondiscriminatory practices. Additionally, Rosen handles complex commercial litigation of cases involving real estate development, lease interpretation, partnership and joint venture disputes, corporate mergers, acquisitions and dissolutions, and landlord-tenant disputes.

Rosen received her law degree in 2008 from Brooklyn Law School and graduated cum laude from the University of Florida in 2005. She is admitted to practice in New York State Courts, as well as in the United State District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

From 2015 to present, Rosen has been named a Rising Star by New York Super Lawyers in the areas of real estate law and business litigation.
