Michael Feinstein joined Rosenberg & Estis in 1994 and has been a partner since 1998. Mr. Feinstein is a smart and insightful attorney, whose strong level of commitment and focus on the big picture and business practicalities has earned him a highly successful record of achievement in the firm's Supreme Court and appellate practices. Over the years, he has successfully handled all facets of commercial real estate litigation, and also has extensive experience in mortgage and cooperative loan foreclosures, representing both lenders and borrowers. Mr. Feinstein has also successfully represented claimants in condemnation proceedings.

Mr. Feinstein is also an accomplished appellate advocate, who has argued numerous appeals in the New York State courts.

Mr. Feinstein has been an active member of various bar association sections and committees, including the Real Property Law Committee of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, the Real Property Law Section of the New York State Bar Association, and the Supreme Court Practice Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association.
