Arielle Frost joined Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. in June 2011 as an associate in the transactional real estate department. She represents clients in an array of real estate matters, including leasing, financing, and purchase and sale transactions.

Prior to joining Rosenberg & Estis, Ms. Frost handled all real estate matters for a multi-practice boutique law firm, representing purchasers and sellers of townhouses, condominiums, and cooperatives throughout New York City from inception through closing.

Prior to that, Ms. Frost was an associate at a firm that specialized in real estate, business, and corporate transactions, working on purchase agreements for real estate, companies, and partnership interests; commercial leases; operating agreements; financing transactions; and condominium and cooperative work with the Attorney General's office.

Ms. Frost received her bachelor's degree with great distinction from McGill University, and her juris doctorate magna cum laude from Brooklyn Law School. She is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey.
