

We're not only on the cutting edge of real estate law, we sharpen it.

SINCE OPENING ITS DOORS NEARLY 30 YEARS ago, Rosenberg & Estis has operated at the forefront of real estate law in New York. The firm's attorneys have an extraordinary understanding of the New York City real estate world, along with a savvy ability to navigate through the intricacies of the court system at both the trial and appellate levels. The firm's in-depth knowledge, combined with sound business sense, enables Rosenberg & Estis attorneys to deliver superior results.

Rosenberg & Estis has distinguished itself through its focus on the business of real estate law, handling litigation, transactions, administrative matters, appeals, insurance and environmental issues. Its client base is as diverse as the city itself—ranging from New York's largest real estate owners and developers to small owners, co-op and condo boards and tenants. The firm's ability to provide the personal service of a boutique law firm with the quality of top New York firms has resulted in the firm's development and maintenance of long-standing client relationships.

Warren A. Estis and Luise A. Barrack head the Litigation Departments; their leadership and their attorneys' exceptional results have advanced Rosenberg & Estis' record of success. Gary M. Rosenberg heads the Transactional Department, in which Dennis I. Hellman is a partner, providing the firm's clients with sophisticated and unparalleled counsel.
