Stacey A. Lara joined Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. in 2019 and is Of Counsel with the firm's Litigation Department. Ms. Lara is a seasoned attorney with extensive experience handling complex commercial litigation and appeals in state and federal courts, and assisting clients with internal investigations and regulatory investigations.

Ms. Lara has represented financial institutions, residential mortgage lenders, loan servicers and trusts in state and federal litigation and appeals arising out of real estate mortgage loans, including claims brought under the New York Deceptive Practices Act, the Truth in Lending Act, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, the Home Owners Equity Protection Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, Department of Housing and Urban Development regulations, and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, as well as allegations of fraud, negligence, predatory lending, and improper loan origination and servicing practices. She has obtained favorable rulings setting legal precedent for mortgage foreclosure litigation in New York, and is well-versed in state and federal regulations governing the lending and mortgage loan servicing industry.

Ms. Lara has also represented financial institutions, corporations, directors, officers and other individuals in complex commercial and securities litigation. She has extensive experience litigating cases involving the federal securities laws, disputes involving the origination and servicing of commercial and residential loans securitized in CMBS and RMBS transactions and other complex financial products, major real estate loan defaults, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance.

Prior to joining Rosenberg & Estis, Ms. Lara was Counsel at Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft, and Kaye Scholer LLP, and most recently with Hogan Lovells LLP.
