Barrack making her mark

Luise Barrack became the first woman to serve as managing partner of Rosenberg & Estis, P.C., when she was named to the post in 2010, succeeding one of the firm's founding partners.

The firm had 45 attorneys when Barrack was named managing partner. R&E is now 58 attorneys and continues to grow.

Barrack oversees the day-to-day operation of Rosenberg & Estis and is responsible for the professional development of all the firm's attorneys.

Her practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, at the trial and appellate levels, and she has is one of New York's leading Loft Law experts.

She is also a member of the Leadership Council of the YMCA's Development Committee, which takes the lead in the YMCA's fundraising efforts.
