Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. announced that Eric Orenstein was promoted to a partner of the law firm.

Orenstein, 32, joined Rosenberg & Estis as an associate in 2005. He represents owners and developers of commercial properties in the New York tri-state area, providing legal services in all aspects of real estate including leasing, development, financing and purchase and sale transactions.

Orenstein will continue to represent lenders and borrowers in financing transactions and workouts of loans on troubled assets. In the past six years, he has completed approximately $1 billion in financing transactions and another $350 million in construction loans. “Eric Orenstein become a valued member of the firm over the past six years,” said Luise Barrack, managing partner with Rosenberg & Estis. “After joining Rosenberg & Estis right out of law school, Eric has clearly demonstrated that he has the drive to work through whatever obstacles are in his way to get a deal negotiated and closed in a timely manner.”

Orenstein received a bachelor’s degree from Binghamton University of the State University of New York. He received his juris doctorate from Hofstra School of Law. Orenstein is a member of the New York State Bar Association and the New Jersey State Bar Association and is licensed to practice law in New York and New Jersey.
