Evan E. D'Amico joined Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. in 2019 and is an associate with the firm's Litigation Department. He has independently handled every aspect of complex real estate and commercial litigation before New York and New Jersey state and federal courts and alternative dispute resolution tribunals, from the initial pleadings phase through discovery, trial, and appeal. Mr. D'Amico's experience also includes drafting motions, taking and defending depositions, and analyzing regulatory and compliance issues.

Mr. D'Amico has successfully litigated disputes arising out of, among other things, commercial and real estate contracts, brokerage commissions, construction litigation, condominium and cooperative disputes, contested mortgage foreclosures, corporate, partnership and limited liability companies, the New York City Loft Law, the enforcement of guaranties and promissory notes, residential and commercial landlord/tenant issues, Article 78 proceedings, Yellowstone and preliminary injunctions, unlawful Airbnb rentals, and securities litigation.

Mr. D'Amico received his B.A. in Political Science from Binghamton University and his J.D., cum laude, from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center, where he was a member of the Touro Law Review, a Touro Law Honors Scholar, on the Dean's List, and a Teacher's Assistant. Mr. D'Amico also won the Award for Academic Excellence as the best Oral Advocate in his class. In law school, Mr. D'Amico clerked for the Hon. Denis R. Hurley, U.S. District Court Eastern District of New York, and interned for the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York.

Prior to joining Rosenberg & Estis, Mr. D'Amico was an associate with Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP.
