Michael C. Castellon is a member with Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. and heads the firm's Construction Litigation Group.

Mike has more than 30 years of experience representing developers, public and private owners, institutions, municipalities, public housing authorities, contractors, design professionals, subcontractors, and suppliers in the commercial, residential, transportation, energy, power, industrial, and manufacturing industries to successfully resolve disputes in a timely and cost effective manner, and to negotiate and draft all manner of construction related agreements.

Prior to joining Rosenberg & Estis, Mr. Castellon was the General Counsel of the Skanska/Walsh Joint Venture, the Design-Build of the $4.2 billion LaGuardia Airport Central Terminal B Redevelopment Project - the largest PPP airport redevelopment project ever built to date. In that role, he prepared and negotiated hundreds of subcontracts, purchase orders, vendor agreements, professional agreements, Letters of Intent, Non-Disclosure Agreements, and other commercial agreements, negotiated and drafted change orders, and resolved numerous delay, defect, and scope of work claims and disputes.

Mike also has been the North America corporate counsel for a French subway/railway design-builder, and corporate counsel for an Austrian hydro-turbine generation design-builder.

Prior to his in-house experience, Mr. Castellon was a partner with Sutherland Asbill & Brennan and a shareholder at the construction law boutique Griffin Cochrane & Marshall (which merged with Sutherland in 2006).

Mike has an undergraduate degree in electrical engineering, in addition to his law degree and MBA.

Mike also has been a construction industry Arbitrator for the American Arbitration Association (2011-2014).
